

CREATE Conference in Ethiopia

Keith Lewin has been in Addis Ababa at the invitation of DFID and the Government of Ethiopia to discuss plans to enhance educational access and equity. A three day national conference was organised by DFID in April with an opening plenary based on CREATE findings. New CIE member Dr Benji Zeitlyn also took part and went on to undertake fieldwork in a rural area under the Geneva Global project on Speed Schools. The DFID Young Lives project based in Oxford University, with which CREATE has had a longstanding collaboration, also presented at the Conference.

His Excellency Ato Demeke Mekonnen, Minister of Education with Ato Solomon Shiferaw (Dir Planning), Chris Berry (DFID Senior Advisor); David Theobald (British Council, Africa), and Keith Lewin
